Over the years, he played with several bands including but not limited to: The Goodie Band, Black Explosion, Organist Rhoda Scott, the Clarence Spady Band, J. T. Carter of the Crests, High-Strung, several gospel groups and musicals including Jesus Christ Superstar, and many others. While these bands represent a wide range of genres from R&B, Blues, Rock, Jazz, Country and Gospel, Kamau's love is old school R&B along with classical Rock. He took a long hiatus from playing but started back playing a few years ago. During the break, he became a college professor and author. He currently teach at Northampton Community College and also teaches drumming at the Antfarm Music store in Mt. Pocono.

John Strauss - Keyboards

Originally from and currently residing in Hellertown, PA. he also called State College, PA, Beaver Falls, PA and Clifton Park, NY home.

John began playing the piano at age 4 and took up the trumpet in elementary school, playing through high school as a member of the concert, marching, and stage bands. His first keyboards were Hammond and Farfisa organs (both of which he still owns today) which he carted around playing with a couple of rock bands during the high school years. Playing music took a backseat when he went to college (the Hammond wouldn't fit in his dorm room) and then "life happened". Inevitably, the music bug bit again and bit hard and he was fortunate to find Flirtin' With The Mob in need of a keyboard player. "The opportunity to play in a horn band with such talented musicians was a dream come true and I'm lovin' every minute of being a "mobster".

Al Trump - Trombone

Al has been playing trombone since 4th grade. He graduated from Allen HS in '72 where he played in the band, the orchestra, and the jazz band.

He has been the leader of the Allentown Hobo Band for the past 32 years. Al also plays with the 4 sharps, a church quartet and the Barnhouse Boogie Band. Over the years he has also played in the Allentown Pioneer Band and the Italian American Band.

Al is a retired Allentown firefighter. His other passions include coaching girls fast pitch softball, which he has successfully done for many years. Despite several health setbacks in recent years, Al is thankful to still be able to play horn and entertain thousands. (He's also the comic relief element in the Mob.)

Bill Glose – Saxophones

A Lehigh Valley native, Bill began playing saxophone in fourth grade. He began playing professionally in junior high school when he started The New Generation and played with that group for over ten years. His musical passion was to play big band music from the 30's and 40's and he spent countless hours arranging charts for his band.

Bill studied music and graduated from Lebanon Valley College with a degree in business administration. While in college, he played in the LVC College Jazz Band and filled in with many bands throughout Central PA. After college, Bill continued to lead the New Generation and play with the Matt Gillespie Big Band.

Bill took a hiatus from playing to raise his three sons with his wonderful wife Karen. They currently reside in Bethlehem. Bill owns his own human resources consulting firm. Flirtin' With The Mob welcomed Bill into the band in March 2021 where he plays alto, tenor, and soprano saxophones.

"Sarah and I just wanted to tell you all thanks so much for everything on Saturday! You guys were GREAT!!! Our guests really enjoyed having the band and it just really made the night great. Everyone had an awesome time dancing! We hope you guys had fun as well. Sarah's sister is getting married on October 11th in the Lancaster area, and everyone was so impressed that they asked me to check into your availability/interest in possibly playing their wedding. Let me know what you think! Thanks again, and we will definitely be seeing you guys somewhere soon!"

"Flirtin with the Mob did a great job at my wedding reception on 10/16. Despite a small wedding, they managed to pack the dance floor. The set list was filled with our favorite songs; old and new! Several songs sounded like the original musician was with us."
